G. APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

- Essay: In two or three paragraphs (no more than one page) concisely state your current set of personal, educational and career goals. State how your experiences as a staff member at Northern Tier have impacted any or all of those goals. You may use the reverse side of this application or attach a separate sheet.
- Academic Transcript: Attach your academic transcript to this application. If it must be requested from you academic institution, ensure you have requested it promptly so it will be received prior to the deadline. Your academic standing must be verified prior to issuing scholarship funds. If your academic institution requires your consent to release this information please attach the appropriate form or letter granting consent to the "Charles L. Sommers Alumni Association, Inc."
- Turn in your completed application, along with a current academic transcript, to Kevin Dowling, General Manager, by October 1, 2010. The Board of Directors of the Charles L. Sommers Alumni Association, Inc. will determine scholarship awards at their fall meeting and recipients will be notified soon thereafter. Upon verification of a recipient's status as a student in good standing, a check will be mailed to the school for credit to the student's account.
