Mr. D. J. ROMINE, SCOUTMASTER,
GLENWOOD, MINNESOTA

Dear Mr. Romine:

We are having shipped to you, as suggested by George Boardman, the Silver Paddle Award for Scout Oliver Kaldahl.

For your information in making the award, I am enclosing a copy of the application form which outlines the requirements.

In addition, I am also enclosing a letter for Oliver, and would appreciate it, if you would give it to him at the time the award is made.

I hope that your Scout and Dad Banquet is a great success.

Thanking you for the splendid contribution which you are making to Scouting as a Scoutmaster, I am,

Sincerely yours,
BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

M. G. CLARK
REGIONAL EXECUTIVE

Scout Oliver Kaldahl
Glenwood, Minnesota

Dear Oliver—

Though it has not been my personal pleasure to know you, I feel certain that any young man who can qualify for the Order of the Silver Paddle Award is a high-grade chap and a good Scout.

As your Scoutmaster presents the Silver Paddle to you, I want you to know that with it comes also our sincere congratulations on your accomplishment.

The Canoe Base is to be improved greatly, starting this year, as available materials come to us, and there will be also a new plan of operating ten day trips in smaller groups.

I hope that you will find it possible to participate again in enjoying the Region Ten canoe trails.

Kind regards.

Sincerely,
BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

Dear Hap:

Oliver Kaldahl of Glenwood has not received his Silver Paddle Award for the Canoe Trip. I am sure we sent in his application many weeks ago.

He would like to receive it at their Scout and Dad Banquet at Glenwood on February 11th. In order to save time and make sure that he gets it, please send it direct to D. J. Romine, Scoutmaster, Glenwood, Minnesota.

Cordially,

Region Ten Office B. S. A.
ST. PAUL, MINN.
July 7 we arrived in Easy Camp and we trucked to the lake. We camped in the tents that night and also introduced to our guide who was Jim Peters.

July 8 we started our trip by going up Moose Lake, then found on Sucker. Then we made Rainbow Cottage then up Bayley Bay to the ranger station. We then got our fishing permit. Then we proceeded into Sunday from here into Meadow - Meadow - into Agnes where we made camp near Fosses Falls.

July 9 We looked over Fosses Falls
and started off for Upper L.
from there into Jerre, Jerre into West L. then into Smith Bay
Where we camped that night.
it was the same place we camped
the year before.

July 10 We awoke early this morning to start for Jim's Cabin. From Basswood L to Jack fish bay from there into Diegastone Bay to Jim's Cabin. We arrived late that day and spent the rest of the day and evening in bed and sleeping where ever they could.
July 11 That month happened to day. Stella and I went over to Bent's tone lodge to get some candy.

July 12 Last night I had something out side I went out but I cant not see anything so in the morning I went to the marble and played at乒乓球 and killed a we ate the meat.

July 13 We went back the way from first cabin up Big Hole Bay down to back bay into steel Bay in backwood lake into Wood Bay from there we portaged in Wood lake from there into Morse lake where we camped that night.

July 14 We arrived at base at 11:00 o'clock and after our way to Stay at 12:30
This ended our canoe trade for 1945
