Icebreaker Trip June 4 - 10 , 1944

Monday

Our party of 11 left the base at 10:30 am having a slight tail wind to Bailey Bay. We saw two deer and a turkey hawk. Prairie Portage was in good condition. Cross waves on Bailey Bay were high but not dangerous. Fishing licences and our travel permit were secured and we crossed the portage which was in good condition. We paddled across Burke Lake to the Burke-Sunday lift over where we camped for the night. We arrived there in the early afternoon and had lunch. A drizzling rain started and lasted till we went to bed. Stew , coffee , bread , and butter for supper. Two Northern Pike were caught.

Tuesday

"Daylight in the Swamp" yelled Bing our guide. I the swamper was up first building the fire and helping cook. The fellows were a little stiff but tents were packed and personals too before breakfast. Dishes done , canoes packed, leaving a clean campsite we crossed Burke to the portages between Burke and North Bay. There were two of them not in very good condition. We saw one deer. We picked Heather Isle for our campsite. Arrived there in time for lunch. Mack and cheese , rice and coffee for supper. Camp was set up in the afternoon and everyone fished . Three were caught.

Wednesday

We got up early and packed everything before breakfast. We had fish, prunes, farine, and coffee. We paddled out ~~NE~~ of North Bay south to a campsite near Washington Island . It was still early so six of us wanted to go to Basswood Falls and camp. We had dinner and the six of us with me in charge got food and started out. We got there in time to set up camp and have supper before dark. Mack, Zombee and bread for supper. We paddled around the falls till dark.

Thursday

Got up, packed everything and had breakfast of oatmeal, peaches, and bread. Started paddling at 9:30. Went down to Pipestone Bay where I missed the portage and we went too far down the bay but it was profitable for we saw a Moose and a couple of deer. We found the portage and coossed it into Back Bay. I decided to find a way across to a place near Wash. Island. There was somewhat of a trail but it was hard going. We seared up a deer on it. We joined the rest of the fellows at 3:30 and had lunch. Supper of stew and coffee at 7:00. Fished till dark. Got nothing.

Friday

We got up early and had breakfast of pancakes raisens, fish, and coffee. Fish were caught that morning. Paddled to Jess Valley's and found out where Hubachecks Resort was. Went there to look it over and have lunch. Went to another resort and bought candy and pop. Went to Wind Bay and had crossed the portage to ~~XXX~~ Wind Lake and camped. Fished and swam the rest of the afternoon. Had supper of rice ~~XXX~~ Mack and coffee.

Saturday

Got up and had fish farine and bacon for breakfast. Broke camp and crossed the portage to Moose Lake and arrived back at camp At 10:00
