Left Webbade Lodge, which is situated on Moon Lake, 15 miles northeast of Og, Min., at 8:15 A.M. The party consisted of Hay Edgar, Uncle, and Emma, sergeant scouts. She had four canoes. From Moon Lake we went into Newfound Lake and from there we portaged into Squirrel Lake and then into Big Bear Lake. Both of these portages were short. She stopped on Bear Island and Indian and then continued on to the Bear Portage. It camps on Caro Portage, which is a portage band of water, which connected Caro Lake and Big Bear Lake. After supper, Roy Oye, Roy Maddela, assistant guide, myself went fishing in a small lake off of Bear.

I 23 Aug. 15.

We started down Caro Lake at about 7:00 A.M. and then portaged into Squirrel Lake. From Squirrel Portage onto Knife Lake. There was another party coming out of Knife just as we came in. From Knife we portaged into Squirrel then into Bear. We stopped for a picnic in fishermen. People from there were portaged into Kenepack. There we camped on 15th.
Thurs. Aug. 16.

I did some fishing this morning and got a few. In the afternoon I took my camera and went for a hike. I had noticed a canoeing and angling merit badge instructor this evening.

Thurs. Aug. 17.

This morning our party split up into two fishing groups and we went back down to the lake and fished. We caught a lot of bass. We picked up a total of twelve bass, which were delicious and we had instruction in canoeing and bait casting.

Fri. Aug. 18.

We decided to go this morning and started up. We hiked some of us stopped at the lookout station and climbed the tower. Upon reaching the lookout we saw several small lakes eventually to come up in Redford.
They back into Knife lake and then continued down to Bowron point on the Canadian side of Knife lake and made camp. She spent the afternoon and evening canoeing and angling, went back to Tibbets Lodge to end one of the most glorious times I've ever had— a trip by canoe in real American wilderness.
